Man Faces 14 Charges After Gun Threat

On Chain Lake Drive In Halifax

Halifax, Nova Scotia, 17.11.2026, 01:06 Time

Brian MacKenzie Teepell/USPA 24 News - SOURCE: Halifax Regional Police:
A 26-year-old man faces 14 charges after police received a report of a man threatened with a gun on Chain Lake Drive in Halifax on Sunday night, Halifax Regional Police said in a media release.

The report came in at about 7:35 pm on Sunday, November 15th. Police say a man made the threat against another man he knew, then left the area in a vehicle.

At about 7:50 pm, an RCMP officer found the vehicle on Highway 103 and arrested the suspect. At that time officers found and seized a loaded firearm and ammunition during the arrest.

Malik Beals, 26, was scheduled to appear in Halifax provincial court on Monday, November 16th, on the following charges: use of a firearm in the commission of an offence, uttering threats to cause bodily harm or death, possession of a weapon dangerous to the public peace, storing a firearm or restricted weapon contrary to regulations, carrying a concealed weapon, unauthorized possession of a firearm, possession of a firearm without a licence or registration certificate, occupying a vehicle containing an unauthorized restricted weapon, possession of a loaded prohibited or restricted firearm, possession of a firearm or prohibited or restricted weapon obtained by crime, two counts of possession of a firearm contrary to an order, operation of a conveyance while impaired by alcohol or drugs, and failure or refusal to comply with a demand for testing.
Police listed the arrest in their weekend update, which says officers responded to 765 calls for service.
